Beautiful Butterflies

BY LEE ANN WATERMAN

Butterflies—long appreciated as a symbol of transcendent change and for their graceful beauty—are having a moment. This season, we’ve found butterflies inspiring local artists, stocked in home décor stores and websites and gracing jewelry and clothing. For even more butterflies—and a healthy garden—read our article on attracting these important pollinators to your property on page 30.

Artist and curator of Gallery Solo in King City, Grazyna Tonkiel studies and draws local butterflies, creating detailed pencil drawings on board and gold leaf. $250 to $2,500 for original works | Gallery Solo, gtonkiel.com

Adding vintage charm to your home or office couldn’t be simpler with these high-quality printable downloads of detailed butterfly drawings. $13 for 4 etsy.com/ca/shop/uniquelygiftedart
